

Open

This button helps to transfer the data of csv file to jTable.

Exit

If this button is clicked, a prompt message is displayed showing “Do you want to close the application” and if ‘YES’ button is clicked the application terminates.

Add Button

When the add button is clicked, the details entered in the GUI form are stored in the array list and displayed in the table.

Clear Button

When the clear button is clicked, the details entered in the GUI form are cleared.

Search by Price

When this button is clicked, the program search the product according to the price entered by the user and displays all the details of the product in prompt message.

Search by Category

When this button is clicked, the program searches the product according to the category chosen and displays all the items that fall under the chosen category

Sort by Price

When this button is clicked, it sorts the items that is stored in the table according to their price.